Cushing, American Journal of Physics Physicists should make every effort to enjoy this well-conducted tour of the history of physics. --John Barrow, New Scientist A brilliant presentation of the ideas of modern physics presented in a richly painted historical setting. . . . This book contains more physics than most physicists know, and more intellectual history than most historians know, woven together in a thoughtful, erudite, and enthusiastic presentation that is unique in both popular and academic science writing. . . .
