Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address on Interstate Railway Traffic, at the Tenth Annual Meeting of the National Board of Trade, December 11, 1879 During the session of the National Board of Trade in Washington, on the 10th, 11th and 12th of December, 1879, the questions of Interstate Railway Traffic, and Railway Management under United States Law, came up for consideration at the instance of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation and the Boston Board of Trade. It was voted to consider these two propositions together. Mr. Thurber, of New York: I desire to offer a resolution which I have drafted, to this effect: Resolved, That in the opinion of this Board it is desirable to secure national legislation upon interstate commerce by railroad, and that said legislation should embody the following provisions: First, to raise a special commission or tribunal to secure uniformity and publicity in railway accounts, and publicity of railway contracts and transactions; Second, to enforce provisions securing uniformity of rates and classifications under like circumstances, and relative quality where circumstances differ; Third, to secure publicity of rates and prohibition of sudden and arbitrary changes; Fourth, to secure the prevention of extortionate charges, and of personal or local favoritism.
