Have you finished breakfast already, Harry? asked Mrs. Gilbert, as Harry rose hurriedly from the table and reached for his hat, which hung on a nail especially appropriated to it. Yes, mother. I don t want to be late for the store. Saturday is always a busy day. It is a long day for you, Harry. You have to stay till nine o clock in the evening. I am always glad to have Saturday come, for then I can get my money, replied Harry, laughing. Well, good-by, mother-I m off. What should I do without him? said Mrs. Gilbert to herself, as Harry dashed out of the yard on the way to Mead s grocery store, where he had been employed for six months. That would have been a difficult question to answer. Mrs. Gilbert was the widow of a sea captain, who had sailed from the port of Boston three years before, and never since been heard of.
