Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bibliographia Lincolniana: An Account of the Publications Occasioned by the Death of Abraham Lincoln, Sixteenth President of the United States of America, Being a Bibliographical Catalogue of All Sermons, Eulogies, Orations, Etc;, Delivered at the Time, With Notes and an Introducti Five years ago the nation was called upon to give its utterance upon the fiendish crime committed at its national capital, on the person of its chief magistrate; and five years ago the writer of this monograph designed the present work to preserve and memorialize those utterances. To many this volume will appear to be nothing but a bald catalogue, of little value and less interest; a production showing very meagre results for five years of diligent labor expended in its preparation. Yet so it is, that in the field of literature, the bibliographers task is that requiring the greatest patience and labor, with the least impressive results, as is quaintly said by Anthony a Wood, in the preface to his History of Oxford: A painfull work it is I ll assure you, and more than difficult, wherein what toyle hath been taken, as no man thinketh, so no man believeth, but he hath made the triall, But is it therefore of the least value? Is it nothing to have preserved for future ages, a record of those products of the press, called forth by one of the greatest epochs in the nations life; to erect a library within one cover for the true historian, the one of fifty or a hundred years hence, to make choice of the foundation whereupon to build his more enduring monument. It is with this aim alone that...
