

Dealing with David

By Katriena Knights

Samhain Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 200 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Its tough to win the game of love if you don't understand the rules. Though Tony Mullin agreed to put on a medieval costume, complete with pointy hat, for her best friend's marriage vow renewal, another round of wedding bells will never be in her own future. Been there, done that, still sifting through the ashes of broken dreams. Yet she can't take her eyes off the Armani-clad mystery man among the guests and no one's more surprised to learn it's David Peterson, the erstwhile nerd who mooned over her in high school. He not only grew up to be a hunk, but a rich one as well. Pity she's sworn off men. Last David knew, sweet, artistic Tony married the high school quarterback. He made his fortune developing video games, but the torch he carried for her still smolders. His surprise that she's ditched the jock quickly turns to determination to win her heart at last though she seems just as determined to play keep-away. David didn't become successful by giving up easily. A freak snowstorm plays into his strategy, but debugging a few gigabytes of computer...
