Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Spiritual Culture and Social Service Upon making the interchange of the work of the local pastorate for that of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and its Social Service Commission, it seems appropriate that the writer should attempt to order and set forth his thought upon the relation between religious devotion and humanitarian impulse; spiritual conservation and moral passion. This book consists of recent utterances in which the author has sought, in guiding the thought of his congregations, to set before them the sympathetic unity and essential identity of spiritual culture and social service. Lest the first section of the book, entitled The Pattern in the Mount, should seem partial and inadequate, the reader is reminded that this is in no sense an attempt to give commensurate treatment to the person of Christ, but simply to portray the Master as the living historic example for human life and service and of the noble spirit in which that service should be rendered.
